Summer school ran from Monday 26th July until Friday 30th July 2021. The day started at 9.30am and finished at 2.30pm. Each day, students followed the above timetable, combining a mixture of academic subjects, along with a variety of enrichment activities. Each session was 45 minutes in length, and students had 30 minutes for lunch. At the end of each day, all groups gathered for our daily collective reading, followed by a presentation assembly to reward students who displayed our Kirkby Child Values. In addition to the sessions delivered by school staff, students received sessions from The Liverpool Foundation on team building and our School Based Police Officer, PC Jane, delivered a fun-filled day in conjunction with the local fire service.
