We have appointed a Student and Community Engagement Office who identifies cohorts of students for external intervention to support students.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1 The Governing Body

The Governing Body is responsible for monitoring this Behaviour Policy's effectiveness and holding the head teacher to account for its implementation.

5.2 The headteacher

The head teacher is responsible for reviewing and approving this Behaviour Policy.

The head teacher will ensure that the school environment encourages positive behaviour and that staff deal effectively with poor behaviour, and will monitor how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are applied consistently.

5.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Implementing the Behaviour Policy consistently
- Modelling positive behaviour

- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular students

- Inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour
- Discuss any behavioural concerns with the form tutor in the first instance followed by the Head of Year, mentor or members of the senior leadership team

- Refrain from wearing make-up. This includes false eyelashes and false nails

6. Kirkby Code

Kirkby High School students designed the Kirkby Code, to provide a safe, fair and calm environment in which learning can take place.

Students are expected to:

- Be prepared to learn, with the correct equipment
- Be respectful to others and our environment
- Allow students to learn and teachers to teach
- Do things first time, every time
- Do all things to the best of my ability

Students should refrain from behaving in a way that brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school

7. Rewards and sanctions

Kirkby High School operates a staged approach to sanctions. These are used as general guidelines for the detention system. (See Appendix 3)

7.1 List of rewards and sanctions

Positive behaviour will be rewarded with:

- Praise
- Positive points on Arbor
- Letters, postcards, stickers or phone calls home to parents
- Special responsibilities/privileges

The school may use one or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour:

- A verbal reprimand
- In extreme cases, sending a student out of class
- Expecting work to be completed at home, or at break or lunchtime
- Detention at break or lunchtime, or after school
- Referring the student to a Head of Year or senior member of staff
- Letters or phone calls home to parents
- Issuing detentions through phone calls or text messages
- Putting a student 'on report card' and/or a pastoral support plan

We may use the RESET room in response to serious or persistent breaches of this policy. Students may be sent to the RESET room, at the discretion of a senior leader, during lessons if they are disruptive, and they will be expected to complete the work provided.

Students who fail to attend a given detention will be up-scaled to the next stage on Arbor. If they fail to attend a head teacher's detention, they will be placed into RESET and will still be required to complete the detention.

Students who are late to school will also receive an appropriate sanction related to how late they are and/or how many times they are late.

7.2 Off-site behaviour

Sanctions may be applied where a student has misbehaved off-site when representing the school, such as on a school trip, on the bus, on the way to or from school or while wearing the school uniform.

7.3 Malicious allegations

Where a student makes an accusation against a member of staff and that accusation is shown to have been malicious, the head teacher will discipline the student in accordance with this policy.

Please refer to our safeguarding policy for more information on responding to allegations of abuse.

The head teacher will also consider the pastoral needs of staff accused of misconduct.

7.4 Zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment and sexual violence

The school will ensure that all incidents of sexual harassment and/or violence are met with a suitable response, and never ignored, as per the school's Child Protection Policy.

8. Behaviour management

Everything we do at Kirkby High School is based on the fundamental principle of respect. Respect for others, respect for yourself and respect for your community. Behaviour management in our school is focussed on interaction, engagement, relationships and differentiated interventions for our students

8.1 Classroom management

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the classroom.

They will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages students to be engaged
- Display the Kirkby Code
- Develop a positive relationship with students, which will include:
 - Meeting and greeting students in the morning/at the start of lessons in the "V" position

- Establishing clear routines including at the end of lesson following school guidelines
- Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
- Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
- Concluding the day positively and starting the next day afresh
- Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
- Using positive reinforcement

8.2 Physical restraint

In some circumstances, staff may use reasonable force to restrain a student to prevent them:

- Causing disorder
- Hurting themselves or others
- Damaging property

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded and reported to parents

Key members of staff are qualified in Team Teach: <https://www.teamteach.co.uk/about-us/>

8.3 Confiscation

Any prohibited items (listed in section 3) found in students' possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to students, however, they may be returned to students following a meeting or dialogue with parents/carers at the discretion of the senior leadership team.

We will also confiscate any item, which is harmful or detrimental to school discipline. These items will be returned to students after discussion with senior leaders and parents, if appropriate.

Searching and screening students is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation. These include random searches and will only take place with a member of the senior leadership team present.

8.4 Student support

The school recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent students with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to challenging behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the student.

The school's special educational needs co-ordinator will evaluate a student who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a student, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

8.5 Fixed term suspensions and Permanent Exclusions

The vast majority of behaviour is managed in school however on occasion a student may be required to leave the premises and serve a fixed term suspension. There are a number of serious behaviours that prevent students from doing well and could result in a FTS or permanent exclusion by the head teacher. The following list provides some, but not all, examples of behaviours that could lead to a FTS or permanent exclusion.:

- Repeated breaches of the school rules
- Verbal or physical abuse of staff or students
- Bullying, in any form
- Sexual harassment of any kind
- Prejudice on grounds of race, age, gender, sexuality, disability and others
- Carrying an offensive weapon
- Use or sale of alcohol or any other mood changing drugs
- Deliberate damage or theft
- Smoking/vaping in or around the building or while wearing school uniform
- Gambling
- Bringing the school into disrepute

In cases where the student refuses to leave, an appropriate adult will contact parents and, if necessary, other agencies such as the police or social care. Suspensions and exclusions are at the discretion of the head teacher and will usually be no longer than 5 days. The process for suspensions and exclusions is as follows:

A full and thorough investigation will take place following any serious incident. This may include, interviewing students and viewing CCTV footage where available. Statements from students and staff will be collated where possible. Where deemed necessary, statements from students may not be submitted as permanent exclusion evidence but reference to these may be made. This is to protect the wellbeing of the students who have given evidence. The headteacher will give full consideration to a range of sanctions before considering permanent exclusion.

Up to five day fixed term suspension – parents are contacted by phone and a letter sent home. In some cases, it may be beneficial to take the student home after contacting parents. The matter is always fully discussed with the parents prior to the student's return to school in the "Return from Suspension" meeting with a senior member of staff. The suspension or exclusion is recorded on file and the chair of the local Governing Body, advisory board notified. The LA may also be notified. Students are not sent home before the end of the school day unless contact with parents has been made. The return from suspension meeting is an opportunity to discuss and reflect on the incident that resulted in the suspension. Standards, expectations and further potential consequences are shared prior to the student returning to mainstream. Students will lose their social time for 5 days following an suspension and may spend time in the RESET room until such meeting can take place. In the case of a permanent exclusion, the head teacher will notify the Chief Executive, Local Governing Body/Advisory Board and the Local Authority immediately of:

- A permanent exclusion (including where a fixed term suspension is made permanent)
- Suspensions which would result in the student being excluded for more than 5 school days (or more than ten lunchtimes in a school term); and
- Suspensions which would result in the student missing a public examination or national curriculum test

For all other suspensions and exclusions, the head teacher will notify the Local Governing Body/ Advisory Board and the Local Authority on a termly basis and give the reason for and duration of the suspension or exclusion.

9. Student transition

To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, information related to student behaviour issues may be transferred to relevant staff, where appropriate, at the start of the term or year. Information on behaviour issues may also be shared with new settings for those students transferring to other schools. Key staff have access to all ATL and behaviour points records on Arbor.

10. Training

Our staff are provided with training on managing behaviour, the stage approach, the use of Arbor and the Behaviour for Learning strategies as part of their induction process. All staff also receive regular updates during INSET days on best practice. Staff can influence the shape of Behaviour for Learning in Kirkby High School in many ways. These include the behaviour working party, where representatives from departments and faculties attend. Behaviour management will also form part of continuing professional development.

A staff-training log can be found in our CPD records.

11. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed by the headteacher and full governing body annually. At each review, the policy will be approved by the headteacher.

12. Links with other policies

This Behaviour Policy is linked to the Safeguarding Policy and Child Protection Policy.

Appendix 2: Stages

Stage 1	Constant disruption to learning	Usually a conversation at break or lunch. Completed by the class teacher.
Stage 2	Stage 1 detention not completed or sent out of the classroom	25 minute detention completed with the class teacher. Class teacher contacts home to inform parent/carer.
Stage 3	Stage 2 detention not completed or constant disruption to a department	Up to a 1 hour faculty detention with the head of faculty and class teacher. Head of faculty contacts home to inform parent/carer.
Stage 4	Stage 3 detention not completed or serious incident (SLT discretion)	1 hour whole school detention. Letter sent home to inform parent/carer of the detention. Telephone call from the pastoral team.
