How to Apply

Application Form

Welcome

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in a position at Kirkby High School.

We are seeking an Advanced Level Teaching Assistant to join a successful and established Inclusion Faculty. The postholder will work with individuals and small groups who have specific educational needs. Experience with secondary pupils preferred but not essential as training will be provided.

We are proud of our school's success and are committed to providing an ambitious and inclusive environment with a strong pastoral care system that values every member of our community.

We are delighted to share that following our last Ofsted inspection (July 2022) the school has been awarded an overall judgement of 'Good'.

To help you decide if the job would suit you, please find enclosed some details, which we hope will give you a flavour of what Kirkby High School and The Rowan Learning Trust are about.

If your values and ambitions mirror ours and you believe you can deliver that vision, then we would be delighted to receive an application from you.

If you have any specific queries please contact my PA, Jo Barrett j.barrett@kirkbyhighschool.net

We are committed to safeguarding all members of our community; therefore, all posts are subject to enhanced disclosure procedures and pre-employment checks.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs A Dobson
Headteacher

Kirkby High School

Kirkby High School is a vastly improving 11-16 mixed comprehensive of around 1000 students where we continually strive to provide the highest standards for our whole school community. All staff at Kirkby High School fully embrace our philosophy: “Our vision is a community driven by high expectations and mutual respect providing all individuals with the belief and opportunities to succeed now and in the future.”

Kirkby High School stands at the centre of our local community and we believe that we offer our young people guidance and aspiration to be the best they can be in all aspects of life. Quality teaching and learning, supported by reliable pastoral systems, ensure that students are preparing well for later life.

We believe in building a culture of resilience and tolerance in which our students can thrive. Our aim is to increase our students’ self-belief and to show them that they can be what they want to be.

The Rowan Learning Trust

The Rowan Learning Trust (RLT) was established as a Multi-Academy Trust in 2012 to maximise potential of all children, students and adults in our schools and to support them in their journey to become outstanding.

Currently the RLT family comprises 8 schools: three high schools, an all-through alternative provision academy and four primary schools. Together we share a set of common values:

- Mutual respect
- Fairness
- Equality of opportunity
- Individual growth
- Kindness

We believe in an inclusive workplace – one that is built on fairness, merit and respect to help our employees perform to their greatest potential.

- ❖ Development
- ❖ Career opportunity
- ❖ Personal growth
- ❖ Thrive

- ❖ Nationally negotiated salaries
- ❖ Childcare vouchers
- ❖ Cycle to work scheme
- ❖ Generous pension
(Teachers Pension or Local Government)

- ❖ Organisational support
- ❖ Collaboration
- ❖ Quality of co-workers
- ❖ Work-life balance

- ❖ Variety
- ❖ Challenge
- ❖ Autonomy
- ❖ Feedback

Continued Professional Development Framework

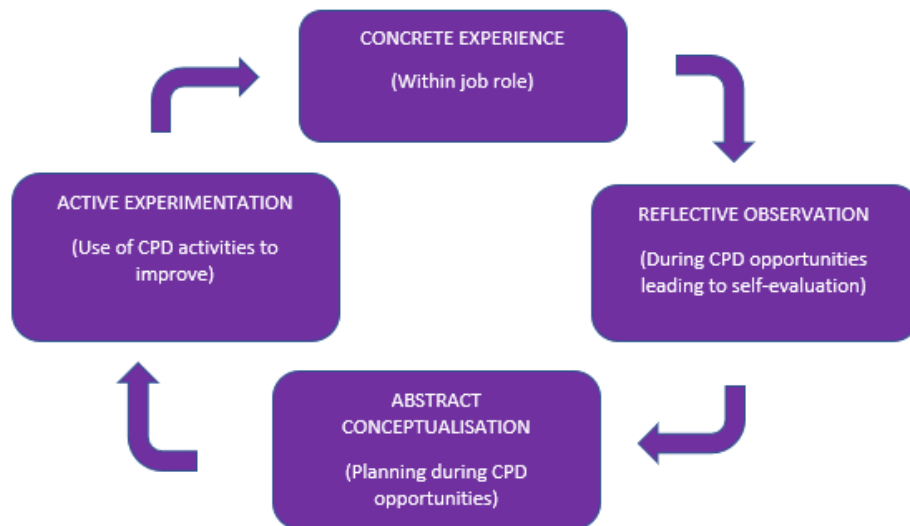

Intent

Our Vision: A community driven by high expectations and mutual respect providing all individuals with the belief and opportunities to succeed now and in the future.

Linked to our vision is Kirkby High School's mantra 'Maximising our Potential' and the Rowan Learning Trust's aim 'Maximising Potential'. We are a learning community. Continued Professional Development is at the heart of our organisations to ensure that excellence and potential grows within all staff and students. We are committed to providing high quality, Continued Professional Development through:

- A structured programme of events and opportunities
- For teaching staff, a seamless link from ITT to Early Career Teachers induction, including access to the Iris reflection tool
- For support staff, bespoke CPD offered depending on role
- A focus on leadership development through structured line-management and external reflection opportunities
- A Performance Management structure in which career progression is a focus, leading to bespoke CPD opportunities, talent management and succession planning
- Clear CPD pathways for progression implemented by the Rowan Learning Trust (e.g. Teacher, Finance, Human Resources, Administration, ICT service, Inclusion / SEND)

Continued Professional Development at Kirkby High School is a process which links directly to Kolb's Experiential Learning Cycle (1984)

Fredrick Herzberg (1959) referred to specific motivator factors leading to high motivation and strong commitment such as recognition, challenging work, responsibility, opportunities for advancement promotion and growth. CPD opportunities within Kirkby High School (KHS) and the Rowan Learning Trust (RLT) have these aspects at their core.

Our offer

CPD Programme

- A Continued Professional Development calendar is produced at the start of each academic year; priorities are driven by school and faculty self-evaluation and development planning.
- Twilights are centred around FACE (Feedback, Autonomy, Challenge and Engagement) for teaching and relevant support staff
- Opportunities for reflection are present in all CPD sessions (e.g. golden nugget)
- Faculty CPD is planned by HoFs and quality assured by the Deputy Headteacher
- Induction for all new staff

Bespoke Opportunities

- A record is kept of all CPD undertaken, for teaching staff, support staff and governors
- Quality Assurance processes linked to CPD opportunities
- Hogan Leadership Profiling Tool utilised for leaders, both teaching and support
- Opportunities for mentoring and shadowing across school
- Exposure to SLT and governing body meetings
- Development planning leads to responsibilities for all staff
- Bespoke development of early years teachers through our Embedding Excellent Teaching programme, developing the potential and leadership skills of teachers in years three and four of their career
- Coaching culture across line-management meetings
- A culture of 'seeking opportunities' through external CPD offer (NPQ opportunities, National College subscription)

Talent Management

- Performance management (PM) – all staff have entitlement to career progression conversations
- Identification of potential during PM planning, interim and review meetings
- Use of RLT Career CPD Pathways in PM meetings
- Discussed in line-management structure after each PM window (in calendar three times per year)

Succession Planning

- Discussed termly in line-management structure following the talent management process
- Critical roles identified
- Identify capabilities for key positions
- Identify potential employees through talent management PM process
- Develop knowledge transfer plans
- Evaluate effectiveness

Job Description

Advanced Level Teaching Assistant

Reports to: Head of Inclusion Faculty

Liaising With: Headteacher, senior leadership team, relevant teaching and support staff, relevant external agencies and parents.

Location: Kirkby High School, Bracknell Avenue, Kirkby, L32 9PP

Salary: NJC Grade F, points 12-17
£26,421 - £28,770 pro rata (actual salary £19,724 - £21,477 per annum)

Hours: 32.5 hours per week, (8.30am-3.30pm), term time only

General description of post

- ALTAs are appointed in an extended role to work as part of a team of teaching assistants and other professionals, under the general direction of the Head of Inclusion.
- The ALTA will liaise closely with the Head of Inclusion, SLT and HoD staff to identify students at risk of not achieving to their full potential and to implement early intervention programmes where necessary. The ALTA will deliver support to students to ensure they achieve/exceed their expected grades.
- All student activities will be logged and assessed. You will be expected to monitor and evaluate your work against expected outcomes.
- To oversee, monitor and mentor those students on work placements.

Main responsibilities

- Under an agreed system of supervision from the Head of Inclusion:
- Plan challenging teaching and learning objectives to meet diversity of students' needs and interests, including those that take place before school and after school.
- Organise and manage a safe and purposeful learning environment; select and prepare resources appropriate to learning activities, taking account of students' interests and language and cultural backgrounds; use IT to support learning activities and develop students' competence and independence in its use.
- Develop and deliver structured teaching and learning activities to individuals and groups within whole school expectations, using strategies, approaches and resources provided by teaching and learning action groups, improving teacher programme and the outstanding teacher programme.
- Observe student responses to taught strategies during intervention programmes to ensure transfer of skills within a classroom environment, feeding back to teacher and Head of Inclusion if expected outcomes are not being met.

- Support the work of teaching assistants and voluntary teaching assistants who are supporting teaching and learning in the classroom, including, when necessary allocation, direction and sharing best practice.
- Encourage students to work cooperatively with each other within an established discipline policy, anticipate and manage student behaviour and promote self-control and independence. Provide feedback for students in relation to progress and achievements.
- Monitor and evaluate student responses to learning activities through a range of assessment and monitoring strategies against pre-determined learning objectives to inform future planning.
- Provide constructive feedback, advice and guidance on pupil progress and achievement to parents, encourage the role of parents in students' learning and participate in meetings with parents.
- Administer and evaluate baseline assessments for identification of need and advice for planning.
- Implement and assist with the development of policies and procedures relating to safeguarding, equal opportunities, health and safety, confidentiality and data protection; reporting concerns to the appropriate designated person.
- Establish relationships and communicate with other agencies/professionals to support the achievement and progress of students.
- Assist with the development of appropriate multi agency approaches to support students.
- Contribute to the identification and participation of appropriate out-of-school learning activities which consolidate and extend the work carried out in class.
- Manage and develop a specialist area, eg parental involvement, charity projects, inclusion buddy support, specialised after school club.

Support for the curriculum

- Deliver structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes, adjusting activities according to student responses
- Deliver programmes linked to local and national strategies, for example, KS4 English, Maths, Science and vocational options, recording achievement and progress and feeding back to the teacher
- Support the use of ICT in learning activities and develop students' competence and independence in its use
- Prepare, maintain and use those resources required to meet the relevant learning activity and assist students in their use

Support for the school

- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to safeguarding, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person
- Be aware of and support difference and ensure all students have equal access to opportunities to learn and develop
- Contribute to the overall ethos/work/aims of the school
- Appreciate and support the role of other professionals
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as may be reasonably directed
- Participate in training, other learning activities and performance management as may be reasonably directed
- Assist with the supervision of students out of lesson times, including before and after school as may be reasonably directed
- Accompany teaching staff and students on visits, trips and out of school activities and take responsibility for a group under the supervision of the teacher as may be reasonably directed.
- Be a designated first aider.

Person Specification
