How to Apply

Application Form

Welcome

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the Design and Technology Technician position at Kirkby High School required for 3rd June 2024 or as soon as possible thereafter.

We are seeking to appoint a dedicated and enthusiastic individual who is ambitious and has an excellent work ethic to start as soon as possible.

Our vision is a community driven by high expectations and mutual respect providing all individuals with the belief and opportunities to succeed now and in the future.

We are delighted to share that following our last Ofsted inspection (July 2022) the school has been awarded an overall judgement of 'Good'.

To help you decide if the job would suit you, please find enclosed some details, which we hope will give you a flavour of what Kirkby High School and The Rowan Learning Trust are about.

If your values and ambitions mirror ours and you believe you can deliver that vision, then we would be delighted to receive an application from you.

If you have any specific queries please contact my PA, Jo Barrett j.barrett@kirkbyhighschool.net

We are committed to safeguarding all members of our community; therefore, all posts are subject to enhanced disclosure procedures and pre-employment checks.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs A Dobson
Headteacher

Kirkby High School

Kirkby High School is an Ofsted rated 'Good' 11-16 mixed comprehensive. All staff at Kirkby High School fully embrace our vision: "A community driven by high expectations and mutual respect providing all individuals with the belief and opportunities to succeed now and in the future".

Kirkby High School stands at the centre of our local community and we believe that we offer our young people guidance and aspiration to be the best they can be in all aspects of life. Quality teaching and learning, supported by reliable pastoral systems, ensure that students are preparing well for later life.

We believe in building a culture of resilience and tolerance in which our students can thrive. Our aim is to increase our students' self-belief and to show them that they can be what they want to be.

Continued Professional Development Framework

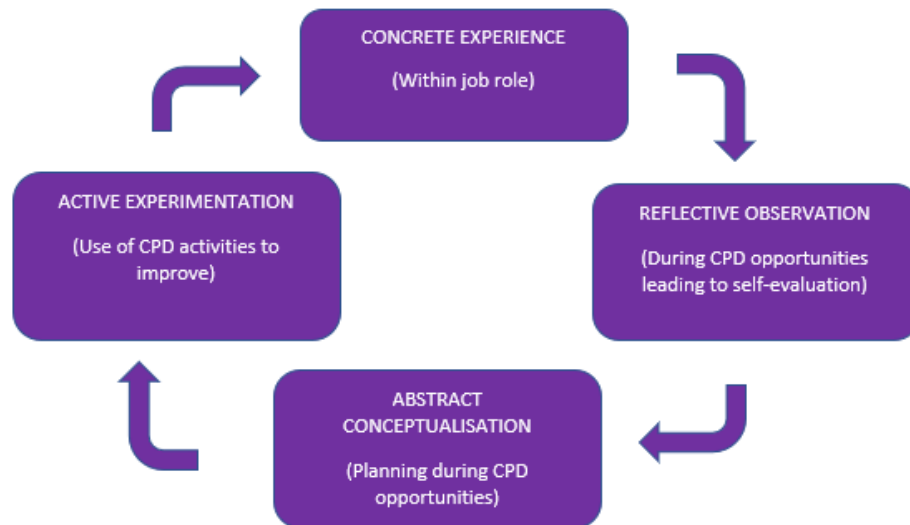

Intent

Our Vision: A community driven by high expectations and mutual respect providing all individuals with the belief and opportunities to succeed now and in the future.

Linked to our vision is Kirkby High School's mantra 'Maximising our Potential' and the Rowan Learning Trust's aim 'Maximising Potential'. We are a learning community. Continued Professional Development is at the heart of our organisations to ensure that excellence and potential grows within all staff and students. We are committed to providing high quality, Continued Professional Development through:

- A structured programme of events and opportunities
- For teaching staff, a seamless link from ITT to Early Career Teachers induction, including access to the Iris reflection tool
- For support staff, bespoke CPD offered depending on role
- A focus on leadership development through structured line-management and external reflection opportunities
- A Performance Management structure in which career progression is a focus, leading to bespoke CPD opportunities, talent management and succession planning
- Clear CPD pathways for progression implemented by the Rowan Learning Trust (e.g. Teacher, Finance, Human Resources, Administration, ICT service, Inclusion / SEND)

Continued Professional Development at Kirkby High School is a process which links directly to Kolb's Experiential Learning Cycle (1984)

Fredrick Herzberg (1959) referred to specific motivator factors leading to high motivation and strong commitment such as recognition, challenging work, responsibility, opportunities for advancement promotion and growth. CPD opportunities within Kirkby High School (KHS) and the Rowan Learning Trust (RLT) have these aspects at their core.

Our offer

CPD Programme

- A Continued Professional Development calendar is produced at the start of each academic year; priorities are driven by school and faculty self-evaluation and development planning.
- Twilights are centred around FACE (Feedback, Autonomy, Challenge and Engagement) for teaching and relevant support staff
- Opportunities for reflection are present in all CPD sessions (e.g. golden nugget)
- Faculty CPD is planned by HoFs and quality assured by the Deputy Headteacher
- Induction for all new staff

Bespoke Opportunities

- A record is kept of all CPD undertaken, for teaching staff, support staff and governors
- Quality Assurance processes linked to CPD opportunities
- Hogan Leadership Profiling Tool utilised for leaders, both teaching and support
- Opportunities for mentoring and shadowing across school
- Exposure to SLT and governing body meetings
- Development planning leads to responsibilities for all staff
- Bespoke development of early years teachers through our Embedding Excellent Teaching programme, developing the potential and leadership skills of teachers in years three and four of their career
- Coaching culture across line-management meetings
- A culture of 'seeking opportunities' through external CPD offer (NPQ opportunities, National College subscription)

Talent Management

- Performance management (PM) – all staff have entitlement to career progression conversations
- Identification of potential during PM planning, interim and review meetings
- Use of RLT Career CPD Pathways in PM meetings
- Discussed in line-management structure after each PM window (in calendar three times per year)

Succession Planning

- Discussed termly in line-management structure following the talent management process
- Critical roles identified
- Identify capabilities for key positions
- Identify potential employees through talent management PM process
- Develop knowledge transfer plans
- Evaluate effectiveness
