1. Introduction

The Rowan Learning Trust collects, holds, uses and shares information about those who visit the Trust and its schools.

Much of the information we collect is classed as 'personal data' and our use of it is covered by a set of rules called the General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. For the purposes of Data Protection legislation, the Rowan Learning Trust is a data controller and is registered as such with the Information Commissioner's Office.

You have rights around the data collected, including knowing how and why we are processing the data. "Processing" data means everything from collecting, to storing, using, sharing and disposing of it.

This document tells you more about:

- How your information is stored and how long we keep it;
- What rights you have to the information.

2. What Information do we collect and use about staff?

We also are required to collect and use information that is given additional protection under the GDPR – special category data, including:

However, this will only be undertaken where and to the extent it is necessary for a lawful purpose in connection with your involvement with the Trust/school.

Whilst the majority of information we collect is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily. Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional.

In addition:

- Schools also use CCTV cameras around their site(s) for security purposes and for the protection of staff, learners and visitors. CCTV footage may be referred to during the course of disciplinary procedures (for staff or learners) or to investigate other issues.
- The school may record external telephone calls for training and monitoring purposes. Personal data referred to within such a call recording may be transcribed and/or referred to when supporting student learning, when supporting students' health/welfare (including their vital interests) or when resolving other issues.

Please note that we may process your child's personal information without your knowledge or consent in compliance with the above rules where this is required or permitted by law.

4. The legal basis for using this information

The personal data collected is essential in order for the Trust and its schools to fulfil their official functions and meet legal obligations as outlined in Section 3. Processing is necessary for:

- Compliance with a legal obligation [Article 6(1)(c)];
- Performing a task carried out in the public interest [Article 6(1)(e)];
- Legitimate interests [Article 6(1)(f)]

Recognised Legitimate Interests (Article 6(1))

Under the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025, we may also process personal data where it is necessary for pre-approved public-interest purposes such as safeguarding, preventing or detecting crime, or complying with regulatory obligations. This lawful basis does not require the standard legitimate-interests balancing test but still requires proportional data handling.

The ways we collect and use special category information are lawful based on:

- Explicit consent;
- For compliance with certain legal obligations;
- For exercising certain legal rights;
- For protecting a person's vital interests in an emergency;
- For health and public health reasons;
- For carrying out tasks that are in the substantial public interest including for safeguarding purposes.

Where we use special category data, we process this under exemptions from Section 9 of GDPR.

Biometric Systems – where a school operates a biometric system for identification (where used, these are usually fingerprint-based systems found in catering/library applications but can include door entry and other systems) then the school will require explicit written consent from each intended user.

Marketing purposes - Where a governor, trustee or member gives us consent, we may send them marketing information by text message or email, such as promoting school events, campaigns or charities. Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting us (see the Contacts section)

Automated decision making & profiling - We do not use any personal information to make automated decisions about our learners or their families, or to profile them. The Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 expands the circumstances in which organisations may use automated decision-making. If the Trust introduces automated or algorithmic systems that significantly affect volunteers, we will update this notice and explain the decision-making process and your right to request human review.

Filtering and Monitoring Purposes – We monitor the use of our ICT network and equipment. We do this so that we can:

- Comply with Health & Safety and other legal obligations;
- Comply with our policies, including Safeguarding & Child Protection, Online Safety, Remote Learning and Acceptable Use of ICT as well as other statutory obligations;
- Keep our networks and devices safe from unauthorised access and prevent malicious software from harming our networks.

5. Collecting this information

We collect this information in a variety of ways, including but not limited to:

- any forms you complete for us including application form;
- your passport or other identity documents such as your driving license;

- the DBS Service and where necessary, the Teaching Regulation Agency;
- the police, courts or tribunals;
- the local authority;
- references prior to your role commencing;
- social media checks (in line with KCSIE guidance).

Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. We will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us and your rights in relation to this.

6. Storing your personal data

As required by the DUAA, the Trust maintains enhanced accountability and governance arrangements, including documented processing activities, mandatory staff data-protection training, and decision-making transparency for all data uses.

Anyone visiting one of our sites is required to sign in using InVentry. Data collected during this process, including digital images is stored on a standalone hard drive which is encrypted. Details of InVentry's Privacy Notice can be found here InVentry Privacy Notice - Education | InVentry

Some of the personal data that we collect and use/process is stored in the Trust's Microsoft 365 account. This is a cloud-based platform with personal data being held on Microsoft servers based within the EU. Other data, depending on why we use it will be kept on other systems (see Section 8) or in paper files which are held in secure storage. We also use email to enable authorised users to transfer information to one another. These emails are always encrypted.

Most of the personal data that we collect and use is added to your personnel file. Other data, depending on its purpose, will be kept in other systems or in manual files. We use email to enable authorised users to transfer information to one another.

We dispose of all personal information securely when we no longer need it.

If you would like to know how long we will keep a specific piece of personal data, please contact the Data Protection Lead whose details can be found at the end of this Privacy Notice.

7. Requesting access to your personal data and other rights

Right of Access - you have the right to access/view the personal data that we hold about you, to receive a copy of the data and to be given more information about the data including any transfer to countries who do not fall under the requirements of the GDPR. - restriction - limit the way we use your information, although, as above this is a limited right;
- objection - object to the way we are using your information; though other than for marketing purposes, this is also limited as above.

Other Rights you have

You also have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, though these are not currently relevant as we do not carry out automated decision making or profiling.

Right to withdraw consent - where we rely on your consent to collect and use personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent. This applies if you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data. Withdrawing your consent will need to be recorded in writing, please contact the Data Protection Lead at school. Once we receive this, we will stop using your data.

Right to complain - you have the right to complain about the way we use your personal information and to seek redress either through the ICO, or through the courts.

We may refuse your information rights request for legitimate reasons, which depend on why we're processing it. Some rights may not apply in these circumstances:

- Your right to have all personal data deleted or destroyed does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation or public task;
- Your right to receive a copy of your personal data, or have your personal data transmitted to another controller, does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests;
- Right to object to the use of your private data does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is contract, legal obligation or vital interests. And if the lawful basis is consent, you do not have the right to object, but you have the right to withdraw consent.

Subject Access Requests under the DUAA 2025

When responding to a request for access to your personal data, the Trust is required to carry out only reasonable and proportionate searches.

We may pause the statutory response timeframe if we require additional information from you to verify your identity or clarify the scope of your request. You will be informed if the timeframe is paused.

8. Sharing your personal data

At times we will share your personal data with other organisations and people.
